Jakarta: The Ministry of Youth and Sports of the Republic of Indonesia (Kemenpora RI) hopes that the 2023 Indonesian Youth Festival to commemorate Youth Pledge Day 2023 will be an event to maintain unity and build fitness among youth within the scope of youth and scouting organizations.

This was conveyed by the Acting Assistant Deputy for Youth Organizations and Scouting to the Deputy for Youth Empowerment Marheni Dyah Kusumawati, when opening the technical meeting of the 2023 Indonesian Youth Festival at the Wisma Menpora Senayan Auditorium, Jakarta, Thursday (5/10).

"The Indonesian Youth Festival is a space to build unity and togetherness among youth organizations. Later during sports, we hope that sportsmanship will continue to be upheld," said Marheni in her speech accompanied by Rinilda as the Person in Charge at the Deputy Assistant for Youth Organizations and Scouting.

"Because youth organizations are the fortress of Indonesia, the progress and decline of this nation is in the hands of its youth. The Indonesian Youth Festival is expected to be utilized well and as an event to show that youth organizations in Indonesia are solid and uphold sportsmanship so that similar programs can continue and be implemented again in the coming years," he explained.

The 2023 Indonesian Youth Festival will be held on October 10-15, 2023. Located at the Indonesian Ministry of Youth and Sports Office in Senayan, Jakarta. The sports and arts and culture branches competed are futsal, badminton, tug of war, interception and fortification. Followed by youth and scouting organizations.

"Another goal of the 2023 Indonesian Youth Festival is to increase the Youth Achievement Index (IPP) and build a spirit of collaboration between youth organizations that synergize with the Ministry of Youth and Sports," said the Chairperson of the Indonesian Youth Festival Organizing Committee, Azzura.

In addition to the sports competitions (October 10-13), the day after there will be a talk show and October 15 will be the peak event and closing of the 2023 Indonesian Youth Festival.

"At the peak of the event on October 15, there will be an UMKM festival, games, and closed with entertainment by local musicians such as The Rain, Sisitipsi and Hura Hura Club and so on," concluded Azzura. (ben)
