On 18 November 2024, the Department of ASEAN Affairs organised a public seminar titled “Our ASEAN Vision: From People to Power” at Samyan Mitrtown Hall, Bangkok. The event was aimed to raise public awareness and preparedness for the upcoming ASEAN Community's Post-2025 Vision. It also serves as a platform for stakeholders from all sectors to exchange views on Thailand's direction and vision in driving ASEAN in the future.

The seminar was divided into two sessions, which are “Empowering People for ASEAN Beyond 2025” and “Positioning Thailand Amidst Changes and Opportunities.” During the seminar, panelists shared analytical perspectives on ASEAN's challenges and opportunities covering various aspects from political, economic, and socio-cultural dimensions to achieving Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).
